

Corporate Responsibility Statement

For over 60 years Pinington have established strong ethical and moral standards in the values of sustainable development. We are especially driven by our decisions on the collective consequences of our activities in the pursuit of healthy business growth.

We believe our reputation together with the trust, honesty and confidence of those whom we have dealt with to be one of our most valuable assets.

We strive to achieve business success through our commitment to respect people, property, communities and the surrounding environs, we recognise and perform our obligations we have towards ethical trading and encourage these principles with all our supply chain.

Pinington share and adopt strong relationships with our staff and community in which we perform our business to ensure good communications are adhered to at all stages of our day to day activities.

We will seek to develop and enhance relationships by learning to understand the needs of others, partners and communities sharing our knowledge, enhancing the environment and supporting schemes which help to achieve safe and healthy environments.

Our Corporate responsibility forms part of our increasing knowledge and duty to all for sustainable development.

We recognise the importance of approaching our duties for Corporate Social Responsibilities in a planned and professional manner.

At Pinington our ultimate aim is to maintain and develop where necessary our inherent principles of corporate responsibilities to all.

Signed ..... Date: 14 February 2014

Mark Ayrton
Managing Director